David and Goliath

1

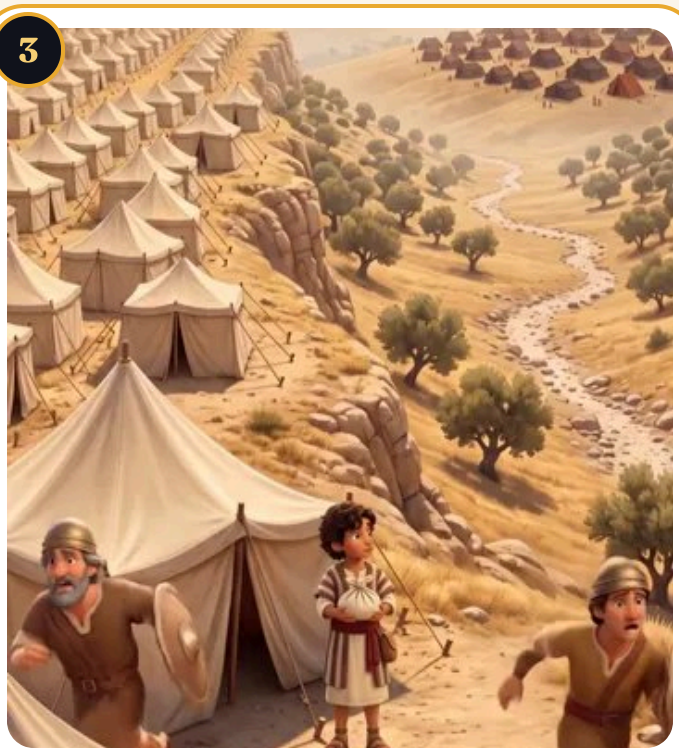

In the hills near Bethlehem lived a shepherd boy named David, the youngest of eight brothers.

2

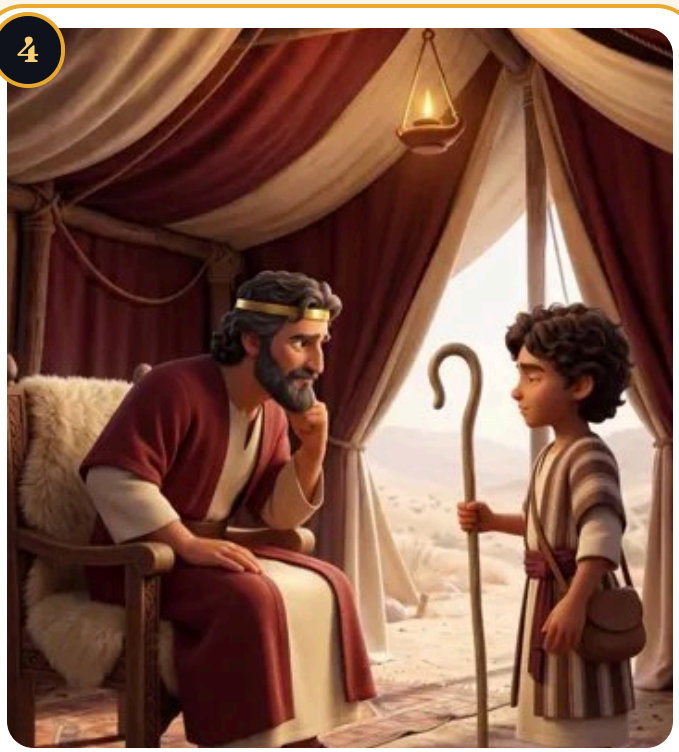

Far away, in the Valley of Elah, two armies camped on two hills.

3

One day David's father said, "Take this bread and cheese to your brothers at the camp."

4

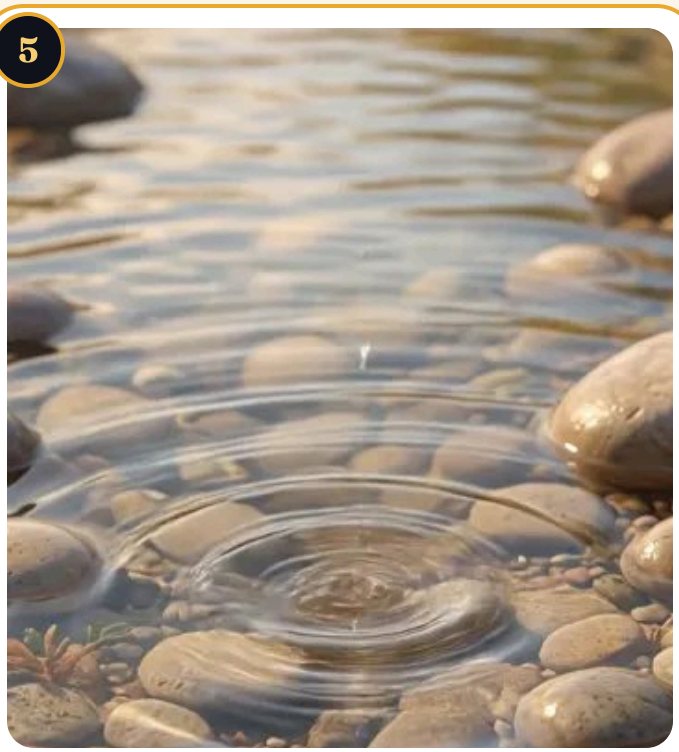

"You're only a boy," said King Saul.

David and Goliath

5

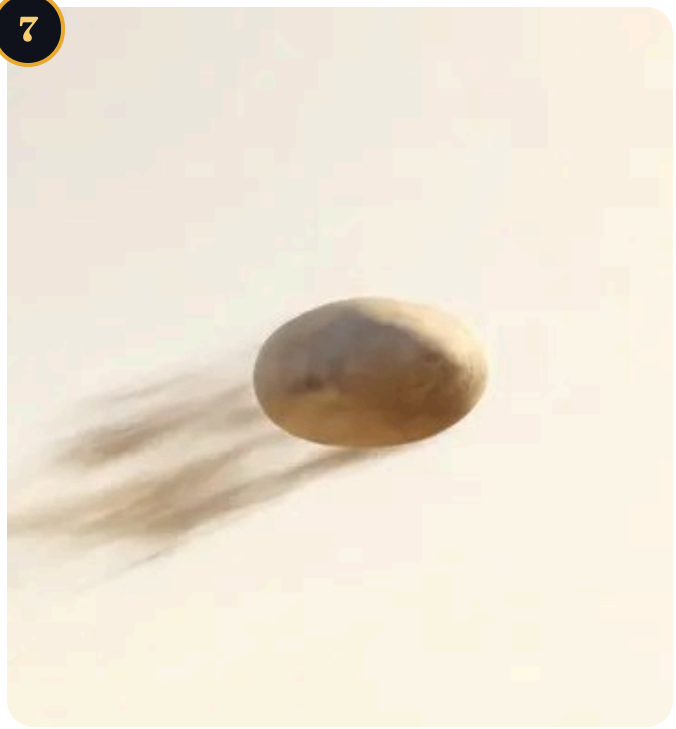

David walked down to the little brook at the bottom of the valley.

6

Goliath saw the boy coming and laughed a big, booming laugh.

7

Goliath took a giant step forward.

8

Then the soldiers of Israel cheered so loud the hills rang.
