The Wise Men Follow the Star

1

Far, far away, a wise old man climbed onto his flat roof to look at the stars.

2

So the wise man and his two friends packed up their camels.

3

At last, they came to a king's palace.

4

So the wise men set off again, and look, there was the star, the very same one, shining ahead of them.

5

They knocked, and Mary opened the door, and there was little Jesus!

6

That night, God spoke to the wise men in a dream, don't go back to the grumpy king, go home a different way.
